JUDGE BY GOVERNOR

Naming Not Due to His Brother,
Who Is Republican Leader,
Miller States.

ALBANY, Feb. 8.—The expected happened last night when Gov. Miller announced the appointment of City Magistrate Morris Koenig, brother of Republican County Chairman Samuel S. Koenig, as a General Sessions Judge to succeed William H. Wadhams, resigned.

"I declined at first to consider Judge Koenig for appointment as Judge of the Court of General Sessions," said Gov. Miller in a statement to-day. "However, his indisputable record was so much more impressive than those of any other candidate that I made independent inquiry to ascertain his qualifications. I find that he is peculiarly fitted and equipped for the place by character, temperament, experience and learning. I have therefore decided to appoint him in spite of the fact that his brother is Chairman of the Republican County Committee of New York."

Court Fines Landlord $150 and Lets
Up on Penalty for Cruelty to Animals.

Marino Di Fede, landlord of an eighteen-family tenement at No. 1559 Vyse Avenue, Bronx, was fined $150 by Magistrate Harris in Municipal Term Court yesterday for failure to keep the building reasonably warm for his tenants.

John Devins and John H. Cook, members of the uniformed police force, testified that upon inspecting the building Jan. 28 they found, among other things, goldfish swimming underneath three-quarters of an inch of ice.

Interboro Yard Work Resumed.
Work was resumed to-day on the Interboro storage yards at Moshulu Parkway and Jerome Avenue, where ten drillers and fifteen engineers struck yesterday. The drillers struck because the Oscar Daniels Company, doing the work, reduced their wages from $7 to $6 day. The engineers went out in sympathy. The places of the strikers were filled this morning.

NEW YORKER LOSES MEMORY

E. Soter Goes to Get Nephew Found in Cincinnati.

E. Soter, senior member of the tobacco firm of F. and E. Soter, left for Cincinnati to-day to arrange for the return of his nephew, F. Soter, who is in the General Hospital there suffering apparently from loss of memory.

The man was picked up on the streets in Cincinnati yesterday. He had a key to room No. 359 of the York Hotel, Seventh Avenue and 54th Street, where it was said he had registered as from Paris on Feb. 5, subsequently disappearing and leaving his baggage behind.

His uncle said the young man served in the war and that his trouble is probably the result of an injury received while in the army.
